

Kaceys Present New Lineup For Sunday

The attraction at the fair grounds on Sunday will be the fast, four-man club of Hartford, a club that is playing fast smash-pro ball around Hartford and the eastern part of the state. The Hartford lineup will include "Bunch," Leonard, well known locally, on first; Powers, second base; Fadden, short; "Bud" Sullivan, former Norwich boy, who has played with the Eastern league team and who will be the same old "Bud" will cover third base. The outfield will be taken care of by Walt, Dume and Murray. The pitching will be done either by Oleson, who pitched for Connecticut last year in the Hartford county league, or by Horan, who was star hurler for the Sage-Allen team of the Commercial league, which was the champion. "Bud" Sullivan, named as one of the best catchers in Hartford, will be on the receiving end.

The lineup for the local Kacey team will be somewhat changed from that of last Sunday. Oleson, who has played short this season, has left the team, as his people object to his playing Sunday ball. To fill in at short, Manager O'Leary has secured Twitche, who played with the Dorchester A. C. and who played several games here last season. Adams will be at first. Fern, who showed up well last Tuesday, will be at second. Hank will be at third. In the outfield will be Jimmy Blagoff, Eddie, who was with Jack Chalky. The pitching will be done by Gene Barry, who replaced Canavan. Dargen will do the catching.

In speaking of his change in pitchers, Manager O'Leary says that as a manager of a clean, sportsmanlike ball team he feels that in replacing Canavan he has acted for the best interests of the club and the fans. In explaining the position of the club last Tuesday, when Canavan failed to show up, Manager O'Leary said that Canavan contracted early in the season to pitch all the games for the season for the Norwich club. Instead of living up to his contract, he did not even notify the management of his quitting but went so far as to send down a man to pitch without a word to anyone. Manager O'Leary, who was in Boston Memorial last morning, arrived at the fair grounds just before the game and was confronted with the situation. He had no alternative but to use the man that Canavan went down, knowing full well that he was a man to put up against a team like Manchester. But as was later discovered he probably did as well as Canavan would have done. Canavan pitched on Memorial day at Lynn, N. H., for the Goodwill Mfg. Co. against the New Hampshire state college team, and while a new pitcher in Boston in the twilight, he pitched a two-hitter, a triple and a home run. If the schoolboys did this to his delivery, what would have happened to him against the Manchester slugs? The Kacey management stated Thursday night that they were done with Canavan for good and all, not caring to have anything more to do with a man who would hire a man to whom contracts or word of honor mean nothing.

Berry, who will pitch Sunday, belongs to the New Haven club of the Eastern league, but is a holdout, refusing to go south with the club. However, he had southern training and pitched against the Baltimore club, better than he has in his few games here. He also pitched against Yale in a five inning game, holding them to one hit and striking out 19 men. He is now pitching in Boston in the Twilight league. Berry will be remembered as the chap who pitched against the Kaceys in Chapman last season, beating them 6 to 4. If Berry fails to do good, no effort or expense will be spared to get a pitcher here that can produce the goods.

An attempt is being made to get Manchester here again on July 2.

TROWBRIDGE PERFECTING

NEW TIMING APPARATUS
New York, June 1.—Followers of Trowbridge are keenly interested in the announcement from Princeton University that Prof. Augustus Trowbridge is perfecting an instrument that will automatically record the timing and placing of runners beyond possibility of error. On the heels of the dissatisfaction expressed by some who were disappointed with the judging at the Intercollegiate meet in Cambridge Saturday athletic officials here hope the apparatus will be given an official testing soon.

REPLACING THE TAPE THAT NOW IS EXTENDED

across the finish line, which is broken by the first man to finish, Prof. Trowbridge's device consists of a flash lamp for each lane, the tape to be attached to poles. The parting of the tape automatically records on a film, by means of electrical and reflective devices, the exact time the runner crosses the finish line. The film is similar to that used in motion pictures and may be instantly developed, eliminating delay.

THE APPARATUS RECORDS BOTH THE START AND THE FINISH, CONNECTED BY A MICROSCOPIC ARRANGEMENT WHICH BEGINS

at the firing of the starter's pistol. The flash tapes are so connected that in addition to the elapsed time shown the instrument automatically discloses the relative position of the runner. Tests still are under way at Palmer Stadium and a perfected apparatus may be available for next autumn.

FRANCE MUST APPROPRIATE

FOUR MILLION FRANCS MORE

Paris, June 1.—(By the A. P.)—The French Olympic committee after being officially informed that the finance commission of the chamber of deputies had appropriated 11,000,000 francs, decided tonight that this amount was insufficient to organize the 1924 Olympic games in Paris.

THE OLYMPIC COMMITTEE ADDRESSED

a letter to Premier Poincare asking for the 15,000,000 francs originally decided upon and saying that otherwise the committee might be obliged to inform the International Olympic committee that Paris would be unable to hold the 1924 games.

STIRLING WINS EXHIBITION

MATCH FROM MISS COLLETT
Glen Cove, N. Y., June 1.—Miss Alex Stirling, former American golf champion, defeated Miss Glenna Collett, Providence, R. I., three up and two to play in a special exhibition golf match for charity here this afternoon. The contest was played over the course of the Norwich Country club and was followed by a fair-sized gallery.

Miss Stirling took the lead at the beginning of the match and held it all the way. Miss Collett made her strongest bid when she scored a two on the thirteenth hole in place of the par three and followed with a four on the fourteenth, a par five hole. This sport on the part of the Providence player reduced Miss Stirling's lead from three holes to one but the latter star won the fifteenth and sixteenth holes and the match.

Miss Collett played excellent long shots but was not so steady and sure in her putting, whereas Miss Stirling's consistent play on both fair way and green gave her the winning edge. Miss Stirling went out in 42 and back in 40 for a total of 82, while Miss Collett took 43 outward and 41 home—ward bound for a total of 84.

SPORT WORLD BRIEFS

John Reckus, outfielder let go by Hartford several weeks ago, is playing right field for the Mahoney City, Pa. semi-professional team. In a recent game Reckus lined out four hits, leading his mates with the willow.

Jabez White, veteran New York state bantamweight, will box Dick Griffin ten rounds at Fort Worth, Tex., June 9.

New Orleans promoters are dickering for a match between Jeff Smith and Tom Gibbons. The latter has been offered a $75,000 guarantee, but thus far hasn't accepted the offer.

The Terry McHugh-Carl Tremaine fight, scheduled for Buffalo last Friday night, was postponed until June 8, because McHugh injured his hand while training.

Walter Kopf, Hardware City athlete, is playing second base for Oakland in the Pacific Coast league. The youngster had a hard time getting started. After failing to hit in three straight games, he finally found himself by banging out four hits out of the same number of journeys to the plate. Two of the hits were extra-base slams.

Cliff Lee, oft fielder of the Phillies hit a ball in the Philly park Tuesday for a home run that was a record breaker for distance. Even Ed Delahanty, slugger par excellence, Larry Lajoie had other demon hitters never equal Lee's feat, which stands as one of the longest hits in the history of the game in Philadelphia.

Dave Shade has been booked for two more contests. His first will be against Billy Ryan at Cincinnati Monday night and the other with "Tilly Kid" Herman at Houston, June 8.

The Braves are weak in the pitching department but a dangerous team any time they get good twirling. "Kid" Gleason is a wizard with pitchers. Some baseball shams would not be surprised if the veteran had a fair sized pitching staff together before the season is gone.

Johnny Dundee has started light training in New York to prepare for his ten-round fight with Charles White at Rock Island, Ill., on June 27.

This epidemic of home run hitting is not difficult to explain, according to an old timer. When freak pitching developed the pitchers were penalized in various ways. Suddenly the twirlers were deprived of their freak styles—except the spit-balls—but their handicaps remained.

Jim Bagby is tottering in Cleveland. He has been beaten twice in what were to have been "test games."

Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker, despite their years and managerial worries, are among the first five hitters in their circuit—a tribute to class.

The young blood in the National league is beginning to crowd out the veterans. The American will soon have to undergo that process.

St. Louis is certainly grabbing off the baseball honors this season, with Hornsby and Williams off to a good start. But in the bottom run of the team and with both clubs pennant possibilities.

Lucy, former Catholic University infielder, is trying to become a pitcher for the Jersey City International League team. He's getting his bumps regularly, but keeps trying.

The Braves have fared poorly against the Glants so far this season. In nine games they were returned winners only once. McGraw's men taking eight of that number.
